by Mr. Welker, is a fraction short of twenty per cont.

This makes it strictly a revenue tariff; and should any alterations hereafter be required, or an increase of duty necessary to produce a revenue to meet any extraordithese articles, provided a small duty had the effect stated. A duty of twelve and a half per cent on coffee and twenty per cent on tea, would not advance the price of either article a fraction. It would reduce the cost at the place of growth in proportion to the duty levied, and the congumers in this country would not be compelled to peg a farthing more for the same article than they do now, from the enforcement of a duty. Other causes which, from time to time, advance and depress prices, would continue to have their usual influence, and prices of course would continue to fluctuate.

Should the holders of the supply of tea and coffee on mand when any duty on these articles went into operation, advance prices in proportion to that duty, there might be a partial suspension of consumption, which which would be felt at once by the producers, and the evil remedied at once by a reduction in the first cost.

The producers would naturally enough argue that if the duty upon these articles increased the price to the consumer and reduced the consumption, it becomes would necessary for them to make the first reduction, to keep up the demand. All these things regulate themselves. The O'Ar own products and manufactures. We now admit, and have for several years past admitted, the staples of the several years past admitted, the staples of the and coffee these countries into our ports more favorably than any other nation, without receiving equal facilities in the admission of our products from them. The government of Brazil enforce a heavy duty upon imports from the United States, and place us upon the same footing as Great Britain, although Great Britain places a heavy duty upon coffee and other products of Brazil entering her ports. There is no reciprocity on the part of Brazil in the trade with us, and we would, therefore, be justified in laying a duty upon coffee imported from that country, particularly, as it may be necessary for revenue. The same arguments will apply in our trade with China, muking tea a proper article to raise revenue from. A duty upon these articles would supply any deficiency caused by the operation of the new tariff, and do away with any necessity for any further alteration.

From sing that in Perfumery the maxim should prevail, "either the best er none," he earneedly solicits one moment's attention to the following very intelligible proofs that he is capable of offering the very best, whether the competition be foreign or American. lst. He possesses unequalled advantages in Paris, in having been for many years Director of the Laboratory of Language even et Fils, for half a century the first house in this line in Europe. 2nd Since the first exhibition, some years past, of his Perfumery, ithan, without a single exception, obtained in New York, Boston and Philadelphis, the First Fremium over all competitors, and at the last enribition in New York, he was hoursed with the Gold Medal never before awarded to Perfumery. 3rd. His Perfumery has banished the imported whousver it has come fairly into competition. This is emphatically the case with his Shaving Cream Why should it not be so? His Perfumery is, in fact, the foreign hoth in its quality and mode of fabrication, with the addition of an excellence which the foreign never can possess, namely, freshness and advantage in many of these articles of the greatest importance, owing to their periahable asture. Ith. His prions are form 30 to 59 per cent lower. Is fine, the subscriber, educated in the best foreign achools, imported with him the scenace and skill of his native city, offers the products of his laboratory, equal to the best insported, and superior to them from the advantage of recent preparation, at much lower prices. He, therefore, flatters humself that his preparations must of accessity supervede the imported, except with those who are no unreasonable as to prefer articles merely because they are foreign, and have been subjected to the influence of a servoyage. To conclude, the subscriber always keeps on hand a per 159 BROADWAY.

the least degree, to the improvement of the Lead, having strailed themselves of every modern improvement for that purpose.

Being well aware, from our long familiarity with the different leads sold in our market, that by far the greater propertion sold an such has been, and still is greatly dudlicrated with Envires, an article of mineral production much heavier than White Lead, and in itself possession no virtue of any pigment whatever, it being, when mixed with oil, almost transparent, and in fact having nothing but its apecific weight to recommend it, the Trusress of the Atlantic White Lead Company har passed, nunnimonally, the following resolution, viz:

"Resolved, That in view of manufacturing only a prime article, the Atlantic White Lead Company will make but one quality of White Lead, both Dry and Ground in Oil; that to be a strictly pure, genuine article, and perfectly free from any adulteration whatever, which the Company will warrant as such to all who may purchase their Lead."

Purchasers, therefore, may be well assured that every dependence may be placed in the purity of every pound of White Lead manufactured and sold by the Commany, which purchase will not only tend to the greater durability of the Faint, but will be found much more economical in its use, even in the most common description of painting, owing to the body or covering quality it possesses, thereby giving a far better finish with two costs, than the adulterated White Paint would with three, of which every painter will hear witness.

The Company also measufacture Red Lead and Litharge, and have for sale a variety of Paints Ground in Oil, viz: Verdigris, Black Paint, Yellow Ochre, Spanish Brown, Paris Green, Brun wick Green, &c.

The Senate met this morning at 12 o'clock, and, without reading the journal of last Thursday, adjourned over till to-morrow. The House, also, take

Speaking of Washington, the Rev. Mr. Dewey, yesterday, in the conclusion of his brilliant sermon in the Capitol, described the character of our first President as resting upon the broad basis of principle, in every thing which he did. Can the "last and youngest of a noble line" say the same of all that he has done, and is now doing, or trying to do?

and youngest of a noble line" say the same of all that he has done, and is now doing, or trying to do? Yes, sir; the sequel will bring him out as bright as John Tyler.

Lieut. McLaughlin, U. S. Navy, tried under a court of inquiry last summer at the Navy Department, for wasteful extravagance of the public funds, and for cruelty to his mer, as commander of the late Florida squadron, has had a report upon his case presented to the House from the Board of Inquiry, which partially establishes the charges of extravagance in cances, rations, &c. And if Lieut. McLaughlin be dealt with as savagely as Capt. Voorhees, we expect he will be suspended until he shall have rendered in the uttermost furthing, and something extra.

We expect some developments in Congress pretty soon, which will give a definite shape to the action of this government upon the tariff and the Oregon questions.

Brown's Hotel is lit up with gas, from a laboratory built at his private expense, exclusively for the use of the establishment and the stores attached.

Some recent changes have been making among our landlords. Mr. T. Tyler, of the United States Hotel, and the founder, as we may say, of this popular establishment, has sold out to his partner, Mr. Birch, and goes to take charge of the Powhattan House at Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Tyler, for most of the year past, has been our "host," and we know that he cannot fail te give an increased popularity to the old established Powhattan. Meantume, the United States' will continue to go shead. Mr. Thompson, late of Coleman's, and Mr Colter, late of New York, have opened a new house near Jackson Hall, on the European plan. They understand their business, and notwithstanding the laudable competition among our city landlords, we expect the "Verandah" will be quite up to the spirit of the age.

Speaking of Coleman, his large establishment continues to hold shout the same rank among our age.

Speaking of Coleman, his large establishment continues to hold about the same rank among our excellent hotels, that the Astor holds among the Gothamites. Coleman well deserves his good repuexcellent hotels, that the Astor holds among the Gothamites. Coleman well deserves his good reputation as a host.

The day is beautiful and clear. The volunteer troops are out. The Georgetown College has a dinner; and there are various pastimes, in a small way, cut out for the evening, the whole to wind up with an anniversary assembly at Carusi's Saloon, of which we purpose an clegant description.

It is whispered about very cautiously, that Henry A. Wise is to be recalled from Brazil. Never, sir; the President owes Mr. Wise too large a debt of gratitude for that.

There are some hard nominations yet before the Senate—of the same sort as Henry Horn, Marous Morton, and such like.

Pennsylvania stands at 54 40, and the tariff of '42—consequently, in the adoption of a line of partition through Oregon, and the revenue bill of Mr. Walker, Pennsylvania is ruled out. You may therefore anticipate hot work upon cold iron in the House—such a contest, indeed, as may end in the complete prostration of the old hunkers, and the placing in the front rank to the succession the Hon. John C. Calhoun of South Carolina. And while, as we assure you, there is a faction bent upon the restoration of Mr. Van Buren, with Col. Benton at the very head of it, the onslaught in the Senate will be even more interesting upon the subject of the tariff and the Oregon.

To-morrow we shall, God willing, send you a graphic sketch of the great speech we expect from Daniel S. Dickinson, of York State, on the Oregon question.

Principal Male Equestrian, Melon and Statute law violence to the United States—it was adding the atrength of Texas to the strength of the American Union—it was giving the strength of the United States to Texas, to work a combinedly with it, "to nibble, without obstruction, at the nationality of all Mexico." Pareless and Almonte, it will be found by-and-by, have so announced it in Europe, as well as in their own bright clime. Annexation of Texas by the United States was destroying a semblance of the strength of the United States to Texas, to work combinedly with it, "to nibble, without obstruction, at the nationality of all Mexico." Pareless and Almonte, it will be found by-and-by, have so announced it in Europe, as well as in their own bright clime. Annexation of Texas by the United States was destroying a semblance of nationality which Mexico, as might have been easily ascertained—which, in fact, might have been easily ascertained—which, which she would have acknowledged independent, as a barrier between her and the American Union; and which she would have acknowledged independent, but for the known fact the independent of the United States.

Andrew Jackson himself, tin his Message to Congress, of the 21st December, 1886. These are the words employed by him:—"the title of Texas to the territory is identified with her independence; she asks us to acknowledge that title to the territory, with an avowed design to treat immediately of its transfer to the United States."

Under these circumstances, to have acknowledged the consumation of the American Union; that, in the thought of Mexico, prevented the consumation of the horizon of the American Union leaped the barrier of its national honor, as well as the barriers of boundary and national treaties. Mexico believes these are glowing evidences of unparalleled in jury—and Mexican thought thinks also of this. The same citizens from whom the same plan, armed emigration, and thus, bite after bite, undermine, with friendship on the government lip, the integrant essentials of the nationality of a megiphor. This second progress will not only be unopposed and indirectly encouraged—it will be openly advocated and publicly sanctioned by both government and people. Mexico feels it, and it is the conviction of it that impels her to look abroad for a guaranty that her boundary shall be as distinct from that of the American Union, as the uterance of her tongue. That future aggression on Mexico will not only be unopposed by this government and people, but openly advocated and sanctioned, Mexico has not a shadow of doubt. The act of annexation itself, in fact, both advocates and sanctions it. The past having mer with approval, that approval is a government command to the citizen to go and do the like again.

Besides, by the success of the experiment in Texas, a complete change is effected in the moral appears be looked into, that fact will be immediately discovered. The President's messages, wwa—yes even General Andrew Jackson's messages—advo discovered. The President's messages—advanced to the Mexico is a mistic to the ungenerous policy that has put it in the hearts of the millions inhabiting the beautiful states compos
